Jackie Marie Beyer, host of the Organic Gardener Podcast and a self-proclaimed data junkie has been journaling her whole life. She's created this garden journal and data keeper to help record progress as they move from gardeners to small market farmers.

Her husband Mike Beyer has been gardening in the Rocky Mountains for over 40 years. For almost 25 years she's been journaling about their gardening journey and now they have created this book for 2018.

Their goal is to help you create your very own Organic Oasis.
